PRAYERS

Let us pray that the word of God shall be fertile in the Church and the world.

Give to the Church the grace to receive the word of faith in obedience and to bring forth good fruit for the salvation of many... Take away all that hinders her witness, so that all her people may share in her ministry and work for the harvest that is to come.

Come in mercy to all who are hungry for the word but are held back by the cares of the living ... Rouse the indifferent and nurture those who are moving towards the Kingdom but have not yet come to the full commitment ... Bless the servants of your word who are bringing its healing power to the nations.

As we share our lives with others who are close to us, help us to live as those who have heard and received the word, that we may be bearers of good news and doers of good work ... May this community be as a field which the Lord has blessed.

We pray for all those in many places who are suffering from failed harvests and who struggle to cultivate infertile land ... We pray for people who once believed but have fallen away through trouble and persecution: bring them back to know the richness of your love.

We give thanks for the departed whose harvest has ripened and been gathered in where new life begins ... Give us grace to follow their example as we wait for our time of fruition.

We pray in the name of Christ who brings to us the good seed of the kingdom. AMEN

DIOCESAN SYNOD PRAYER, 17-19 AUGUST 2017

Lord of every generation, you call your people to gather together in Synod
and to move out to follow your way in the world:
Forgive us where we have fallen short of your will for us,
encourage us to build up your people in community, and direct us to re-affirm our covenant in your Son that we can continue securely on the foundations that have been laid; in Jesus Christ our Lord
